

"Aspire International will be a joining of Aspire and Elim Missions with the purpose of reaching even more women for Jesus"

I love the way that Holy Spirit can take one short conversation that is full of dreams of what could be and then proceeds to open up opportunities, one small step at a time, for those dreams to begin to turn into reality.

I'm believing that in the years to come, through Aspire International, women of all ages will be empowered to engage in international mission and that some will hear the call of Jesus to go and serve cross-culturally overseas

INTERNATIONAL

Our Vision for Aspire is to Reach, Inspire, Support and Equip women to fulfill the purposes of God. Not only are we passionate about seeing that vision being fulfilled here in the UK but we would love to see that same vision being carried out further in other nations. It's been a joy to see so many women from our conferences supporting the Befree projects through the "Have a Heart" campaign over the last few years. Both Mandy Campbell and Linda Murray from Elim Missions have joined with us at our conferences to share about the amazing work that goes on in the Befree projects around the world.

When Elim's International Missions Director, Iain Hesketh and I had that conversation last autumn about how Aspire and Elim Missions could partner together even more to reach women, those dreams soon started to quickly become a reality.

My passion is for Aspire to not only reach women in other nations but to facilitate and help release those women that have a heart to serve on the mission field too. So with this new initiative, we hope to enable women all across our Elim Churches to reach women all across the nations. Together we have started to take steps to make this happen!

— LEANNE MALLET, ASPIRE DIRECTOR

Through Aspire International we plan to extend this opportunity to the Aspire women by offering mission trips in 2020/21. We hope to visit three different countries initially, Macedonia, India and Cambodia. In each place we will host a Ladies Conference and work alongside the local churches in their various programmes.

It is a great privilege to be overseeing Aspire International and here at Elim Missions. During my time working for Elim Missions I have had the honour of travelling overseas on many occasions, witnessing first hand the amazing work undertaken through the Befree campaign. These mission trips have had a profound impact on my life and given me a greater passion to make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate.
