

Racial Justice Worksheet

Question

Personal

Where do I need to practice forgiveness in the area of racial justice?

Where are the biases and stereotypes that I may have unwittingly picked up during my time in ministry?

You will need to ask a trusted friend or a ministry colleague to support you in this question

These are questions to improve your youth ministry, in the area of racial Justice.

Checks and Balances

1. What are the things I can do to be an ally to your youth team and young people on the area of racial justice?

2. What youth ministry do I know that I can arrange to take my young people to visit from diverse backgrounds?

3. Organisation create an atmosphere where young people and youth workers, can challenge discriminatory comments whenever you hear them, no matter how seemingly flippant or small?

4. How can I ensure young people are given the opportunity to take up positions of leadership within my youth ministry and organisation?

Youth Ministry

1. How can I change my presentation of the gospel to allow all walks of life to receive the Good News?

2. How can I create a safe space for young people from different cultures to feel comfortable to discuss their struggles without people trying to explain or create excuses for their experiences?

3. How can I ensure we cover racial justice and discrimination as part of your youth ministry curriculum even if you don't have any people of colour within the youth group?