YOUTH

Session 1

Going after the Heart

We recognise that lasting change in the lives of young people comes from the heart, and so we want to encourage young people to develop a heart-level connection with Jesus and with others.

This session will explore how we can protect, nurture and encourage young people's hearts, whilst avoiding emotional manipulation.

Session 2

Building and Releasing Healthy Teams

Teams are essential for effective youth ministry, but how do we build teams from the ground up, and how do we keep teams mission focused?

In this session, we'll look at some practical ways of how to work with youth ministry teams, and also consider how best to support and champion young leaders.

A circular portrait of Jamie Price, a young man with short brown hair and a beard, smiling. The portrait is set against a light blue circular background.

Jamie Price works with Limitless and leads the Limitless Pioneers ministry, which helps churches with no youth ministry start brand new youth ministries. Previous to this he was a Youth Pastor in the Elim Church in Newquay, Cornwall for 7 years. He lives in Birmingham with his wife Debs and sons Jude and Ezekiel. In his spare time he loves to run and read.

CHILDREN

Session 1

It's all about the Heart

Children's behaviour is in your face. You can't miss it. It is what we notice. But the emphasis throughout the Bible is their heart. True change and flourishing always comes via the heart, as the Spirit goes to work bringing the peace and joy that we all want for our children.

Let's learn together how we can reach the hearts of our children as we teach them, love them and see Jesus transform them.

Session 2

Parent Partnership

Most Christian parents know that they are the key people in helping their children to decide to follow Christ. And yet, so often the parents feel intimidated, guilty or confused about their task. Instead, they look to their church to do the job for them.

Let's explore how we can partner with parents, encouraging them that they can play their full part and supporting them as they do.

A circular portrait of Ed Drew, a man with short brown hair, wearing a blue collared shirt, set against a light grey textured background. The portrait is partially overlaid by a dark teal circular shape on the left and a light blue circular shape on the right.

Ed Drew is the Ministry Director of Faith in Kids, which exists to see confident parents and thriving churches raising children together to trust Christ eternally. Ed has worked with children and families for more than 15 years. He is the author of Meals with Jesus, The Wonder of Easter and The Adventure of Christmas.
