

LIMITLESS STAND

Overview:

Join the Limitless stand team and be part of selling all our incredible Limitless merch to all our festival goers.

Responsibilities and requirements:

- To help set up and clear down the Limitless Stand in the exhibition hall.
- To ensure the stand appearance is presentable, including the little touches.
- To ensure each product is showcased on the stand and manage stock levels.
- To man the stand during a shift and help ensure it is covered during all opening times.
- Serve customers and deal with any enquiries.
- Be willing to share about the Limitless ministry and the upcoming events.
- To help delegates sign up to the Limitless database.
- To process product sales through different payment methods.
- To help keep the exhibition hall tidy and clean, including the bins
- All team members are expected to support and take responsibility for the wellbeing and safety of young people and must follow emergency procedures whenever required to manage the overall event. This responsibility applies at all times, including overnight. You may be asked to provide support outside of your assigned shift, including teaching, caring for or supervising children in other teams such as the additional needs team, sports and others.
