

THE CATHEDRAL

Overview:

A place to facilitate a space where young people can encounter the presence of God through worship and prayer

Responsibilities and requirements:

- A passion for facilitating a space where young people can both pursue and encounter the presence of God, through worship and prayer.
- Ideally, some confidence in praying out loud for young people and familiarity with altar ministry.
- Available to serve during at least two late evening sessions (9pm-11pm)
- Communications skills to connect with young people
- Intercession: Gather before each session to pray over the young people, sharing any words with the team.
- Prayer Ministry: Be attentive and available to pray with young people, whether through altar calls or personal requests.
- Practical Support: Assist with venue preparation, whether setup or tear-down.
- Team Collaboration: Provide active support to team leaders, responding to their directions and contributing to a team effort.
- Model Engagement: Set an example of hunger and engagement during worship and prayer teams.
- All team members are expected to support and take responsibility for the wellbeing and safety of young people and must follow emergency procedures whenever required to manage the overall event. This responsibility applies at all times, including overnight. You may be asked to provide support outside of your assigned shift, including teaching, caring for or supervising children in other teams such as the additional needs team, sports and others.
