GEORGE HERRERA

George is originally from California, but his journey brought him to England, where he attended Bible college and earned a BA in Youth & Community Work and an MA in Transforming Leadership. His passion lies in using video games as a platform to share the message of Jesus with young people. George is the founder of Victory Gaming, a Christian E-sports league. He is passionate about spreading the goodness of Christ to as many people as possible, combining the love of gaming with the transformative power of faith.
