

VILLAGE HOSTS

Overview:

Are you a caring and organized individual who wants to ensure everyone has a comfortable and enjoyable experience? Join our Village Host Team, where you'll play a pivotal role in taking care of our delegates back at their campsite.

Responsibilities and requirements:

The site has a number of coloured Zones where delegates will be camping. Each Zone is divided into different villages, and you will be overseeing those who are camping in one of those villages. Your job will be to keep the P's:

PRACTICAL

On Day Zero allocate spaces for groups assigned to your village according to their size.

On Day 1, as delegates arrive, be on your village ready to direct them to those spaces, allocating cook tents around the edges where possible.

PERSONAL

Be the go-to point for your village for information and/or help.

As groups are setting up, introduce yourself to all the leaders of the groups in your village explaining where you can be found. (It would be good to make your tent distinctive with a sign or flag so people can easily find you).

PARKING

Ensure that no cars remain on site at the end of Day 1, unless they are blue badge holders.

PASTORAL

During the week look out for those who may be camping on your village who are on their own or are wandering around on their own, including youth leaders. Check they are okay and listen out for feedback as to how they are feeling.

POLICING

Endeavour to quieten loud voices after midnight when delegates return to their villages each evening. (Food vendors close at 11pm) village hosts cover the site and so the ability, physical job role over numerous hours on arrival day. appropriate level of mobility
